Subject..... Suspected Abduction of four young girl students to Wenchow

- Sinza Misc. 539/38 report dated November 19, 1938

Made by... D.S.I. Kao Yen-ken

Forwarded by

C. G. S. for S. I.

In connection with the case against four persons who were arrested by the Municipal Police on November 18 and are being held on a writ of detention on suspicion of abduction of four young girl students (Vide Sinza Misc. 539/38 report dated November 19, 1938), the four suspects have been interrogated by the personnel of the Special Branch and their statements are forwarded herewith.

A resume of the events prior to arrest follows:- about two months ago, Zung Kyung-san (陳金三) alias Sung Koo Jen (沈可人), aged 25, then Manager of the Dee Loong Refugee Camp, Lane 568, 3 North Shanse Road (1st accused), in conjunction with his fiancée named Yang Yang (楊漾) alias Yang Ngoeh-hwa (楊五華) aged 19, (2nd accused) formed the so-called "6th War Service Party of the Shanghai Students' Wandering Group," a secret organization. The object of this group was to recruit young ~~girl~~ students or ex-students who were willing to wander about the country in the interior and carry out national salvation work. Both claim that this group is supported by Wong Chao-dz (王造時) and Sung Chun-dz (沈鈞儒), two well-known "national salvation" leaders, who were once arrested and imprisoned by the National Government. The city of Nanchang, Kiangse, was the centre where members would disperse and individually conduct national salvation work under the auspices of the "National Salvation Association." About thirty members are at present in Shanghai, awaiting transportation to the interior, most of whom are young persons under the age of twenty and are being sent off without permission from their parents. A case in point is that of Li Chun ( 李群 ) alias Zia Li-kuo ( 謝利國 ), aged 15 (4th accused), who worked under Zung Kyung-san (1st accused), and who left his parents without their permission who have been endeavouring to find their missing child. There is little doubt that this group is a menace to young students and their families. It is a fact that five batches of young students have left Shanghai for the interior through the machination of this group and their present whereabouts are unknown to the people who despatched them. The 1st accused readily admits being a committee member responsible for the first batch which left Shanghai in March, 1938, for Hankow.

The depredations of this group on the other hand are detrimental to the repatriation of refugees as it gives cause to the Japanese authorities to interfere with the repatriation of those people. As will be seen from the statements, the first batch for this cause left Shanghai in the name of repatriated refugees and numbered sixty. Those people being accommodated in the 70th Refugee Camp on North Kiangse Road (now closed) through arrangements made by a promoter of the group who was concurrently the Manager of the 70th Camp. Free passage tickets to Hongkong were obtained from the Repatriation Section of the Shanghai Emergency Relief Committee, Pootung Guild Building, 1454 Avenue Edward VII. It is worthy of note at this juncture to recall that the Japanese Military Police in company with the Municipal Police (C.I.) searched the office of the Shanghai Emergency Relief Committee, on May 7, 1938, with the object of investigating the committee's procedure in the repatriation of refugees to various places. They claimed that they were acting on information received that the refugees being repatriated were being recruited for work with the Chinese army in the interior.

The 1st accused still continued his work in this direction and the 6th batch of recruited members, by dint of his position as Manager of the Dee Loong Refugee Camp of the Federation of Charity Organizations was placed in this camp, and on November 8 he secured free tickets to Wenchow from the federation (Jen Chi Tang), 35 Yunnan Road, for those members under the pretext that they were refugees being repatriated. The steamer was due to leave for Wenchow on November 12 but owing to the trend of hostilities in the South the sailing date was delayed. In confirming this, enquiries at the federation elicited that in the interval of the postponement, the federation discovered the existence of this political group and refused to issue further new passage tickets to the 1st accused. The federation also instructed him to leave the camp, which compelled him to live in the Yuan Tan Lodging House on Avenue Edward VII, the place where he was arrested. Those people whom he had attempted to transport out of Shanghai, according to the accused, are still living in the Dee Loong Refugee Camp pending transportation.

The 1st accused Zung Kyung-san claims in his statement that he resigned of his own accord from the post of camp manager because of his intention to leave Shanghai, but investigations made at the Federation of Charity Organizations, reveal that this statement is not true. According to Mr. Chao Poh-ch'u, Chief of the Refugee Reception Section of the Federation, the Federation received on October 22 an anonymous letter stating that the 1st accused, the then Manager of the Dee Loong Camp, was embezzling the rice issued to the camp and an investigation was commenced in which the allegation was more or less confirmed, but sufficient evidence was not forthcoming, so Mr. Chao Poh-ch'u on October 24 asked the 1st accused to resign his position in the camp.

It will be seen in the statement of the 1st accused that he denied having the intention of retaining those four girl students and of sending them to the interior but in the statement of the 4th accused Li Chun it will be seen that on November 17 he and the 1st accused instructed the girls to be present at the Yuan Tan Lodging House at noon November 18, should they want to leave Shanghai, which the four girls did. The four girl victims also stated that the 1st accused Zung informed them that $100 would be required for travelling expenses if they decided to go with the group. Further he knew the parents of those girls and even visited one of them on November 18th but made no mention that their daughter was about to leave Shanghai even when he knew the parents objected.

The accused in this case could be charged under Art. 240 Sec. 1 and 4 of the C.C.R.C. but should the evidence produced in Court appear in the newspaper, the Japanese Authorities no doubt would remember their visit to the Pootung Guild and adopt a scheme to obstruct refugees being repatriated. On the other hand the Shanghai First Special District Court may look on the case as one activated by patriotic motives and not entertain it giving it unnecessary publicity.

REPORT OF POLICE INVESTIGATIONS.

The following is the statement of Zung Kyung-san alias Sung Koo-jen native of Hangchow taken by me D.S.I. Kao Yen-ken at Sinza Station on the November 21, 1938 interpreted by _____

My name is Zung Kyung-san (陳金三), alias Sung Koo-jen (沈可人) (real name). I am 25 years old, a native of Hangchow and single. I was the Manager of the Dee Loong (棟隆) Refugee Camp, Lane 568, 3 North Shansse Road, from which post I resigned on November 12, owing to my intention to leave Shanghai.
I am residing in this camp.

I was a student of the Fuhtan University, Kiangwan, between 1932 and 1934. In that school, I served as a staff member of the Propaganda Department of the Fuhtan University Students' National Salvation Association. In 1935, I established the Tsungming Primary School, (崇明) at 4 Tseng Ping Li, Hart Road, which closed down a year later owing to financial difficulties. Between 1935 and 1937, I was employed in the Noong Tseng (農村) News Agency, 100 Avenue Joffre, as a reporter. Meanwhile I used to contribute articles on Chinese literature to the China Times (now defunct) under the nom-de-plume of Sung Yoeh (沈學).

Following the outbreak of hostilities in August 1937, I joined the Shanghai Cultural Circles' National Salvation Association, 5th floor, Pootung Guild Building, 1545 Avenue Edward VII (now defunct), as a staff member of the Propaganda Department. In March, 1938, Sung Foh-

a "Shanghai Student Wandering Group" (上海學生流亡團).
(Mr. Pan Kung-chan (潘公展), Commissioner of the now defunct Bureau of Social Affairs, Shanghai City Government, was in charge of the Chung Foong Zee). The object of this group was to unite those young students in Shanghai who were willing to proceed to the interior to carry out national salvation and Red Cross enterprises and thereafter to send them in groups to the interior. Sung and Yu, the promoters, both of whom are my friends, are now stated to be in Changsha. Then, there were about sixty members and I was appointed as one of the committee members of the group. On March 12, 1938, the group left for Hankow, by steamer via Hongkong. We obtained free passage tickets from the Shanghai Emergency Relief Committee, 1545 Avenue Edward VII, in the name of refugees of 70th Refugee Camp, North Kiangse Road (now closed) who wished to be repatriated. The arrangements for the free passage were made by Yu Zuan-chien, who was then concurrently the Manager of the 70th Camp. On arriving at Hankow, all the members dispersed and carried out national salvation work individually under the auspices of the "National Salvation Association". I myself was introduced to join the Ants' Club (this club was removed in 1937 from the Continental Emporium Building, Nanking Road, Shanghai, to Hankow), and served as a staff member in the Library Section, which aimed at national salvation propaganda work. In July, 1938, Sung Chun-dz (沈鎬德), a well-known national salvation leader and a committee member of the People's Political Council, issued an instruction ordering me to come to Shanghai and assist in national salvation work here. I was introduced to see Chang Tsoong-ling (張宗齡), a university professor in Shanghai, whose residential address is unknown to me.. Chang Tsoong-ling was communicated with through the medium of Tao Ying (陶英), an employee of the Publication Department of the News Digest, 160 Avenue Edward VII. Chang instructed me to endeavour to persuade local refugees to return to their native places to conduct national salvation work. In this connection he introduced me to Chao Poh-ch'u (趙樸初), Chief of the Refugee Reception Section of the Federation of Charity Organizations, (Jen Chi Tang), 35 Yunnan Road, who in turn posted me in the Dee Loong Refugee Camp, North Shanse Road, as the Camp Manager. In the Camp, I got into touch with a number of my friends among local students as well as their friends and formed the 6th War Service Party of the "Shanghai Students' Wandering Group". In the past five parties left Shanghai in rotation for the interior. I was in the first party to Hankow only and therefore do not know what happened to the 2nd to 5th parties. There are altogether 30 members. By dint of my position in the Dee Loong Refugee Camp, I placed all these members including two females, namely my fiancee Yang Yang (楊漾) and another girl aged about 18 named Chang Chi (張琦), a student of the Tseng Yui Middle School for Girls, Avenue Woch (Chengtu Road District), in the refugee camp under my management, and on November 8, I obtained 30 free passage tickets from the Federation for the s.s. "Liang Chow" (涼州) due to leave for Wenchow on November 12. Miss Chang Chi claimed to have obtained permission from her parents, but I have not taken the trouble of checking her claim. The free passage tickets were obtained on the pretext of repatriating refugees. We all boarded the steamer on November 12, but it failed to leave Shanghai owing to the unsteady situation at Wenchow. Our destination is Nanchang, Kiangse, where we expect to see Mr. Wong Chao-dz (王造時), a national salvation leader, for instructions.

Of the 30 persons, twenty have decided to raise some money and leave Shanghai under any circumstances and are living in the Dee Loong Refugee Camp for the time being. The other ten have returned to their respective homes.

On November 16, I rented Room 28, Yuan Tan (元旦) Lodging House, Avenue Edward VII (French Concession), which served as a communication address for the Group. At 7 p.m., November 17, Li Chun (李群), a committee member of the Group, came to the room with a girl student named Wong Bei-ngoeh (王佩玉) and informed me that Four girl students including Wong would like to proceed to the interior and carry out national salvation and Red Cross work. I promised to consider this request later, whereupon Wong left.

At noon November 18, Wong Bei-ngoeh and three others came to my room. On ascertaining from them that they had no permission from their parents to leave, I told them to return home. They, however, refused. Thereupon I, together with Li Chun and my fiancée, Yang Yang went to the home of Wong Bei-ngoeh, 227 Race Course Road, with the ostensible object of collecting some contributions for the Group, but really to ascertain whether her family had agreed to her departure for the interior. When we were there, it happened that a teacher of the Shanghai Middle School, in which Wong is studying, called at Wong's home and reported the girl as missing. The teacher remarked that most probably she was on her way to the interior as she had long desired to do. Upon this we promised to try to make some enquiries for the family and inform them later if she could be located. We failed, however, to inform Wong's parents that the girl was with us in the lodging house and that we had refused them permission to leave Shanghai with us. (Note: Li Chun ( 李 群 ), another accused in the same case, aged 15, a student of the Fuhtan Middle School, Avenue Haig, is with Zung's Wandering Group, also without permission of his parents, yet Zung keeps him without notifying the parents.)

On learning that Wong Bei-ngoeh's parents objected to her intending departure, we returned to the lodging house at 3 p.m., and again attempted to persuade the girls to return home. They again refused and intimated that they would commit suicide if they were rejected from the Group. Shortly afterwards I left the lodging house and went to the Italo-Chinese Steamship Company operated by Mr. Yu Ya Ching at 93 Canton Road, and requested the issue of free passage tickets to the group to Wenchow. A representative of Mr. Yu Ya Ching named Mr. Chen ( 陳 ) received me and promised to give us ten free tickets should I be able to supply shop security for the passengers. Thereupon I proceeded to the Dee Loong Refugee Camp and discussed the matter with other members of the Group. At 7 p.m., the same day, the mother of my fiance came to the camp and looked for me and her daughter, as she had learned of her intention of leaving Shanghai. The mother, my fiance and myself then went to the lodging house. No girl was in my room. At 9 p.m., a girl named Kao came and I again instructed her to return home but still without avail. At about 9.30 p.m., the same day (November 18), the Municipal Police came and arrested me, my fiance and the girl Kao ( 高 ). My mother-in-law, then

REPORT OF POLICE INVESTIGATIONS.

The following is the statement of Yang Yang (楊漾) alias Yang Ngoeh-hwa (楊玉華).
native of Peiping taken by me D.S.I. Kao Yen-ken.
at Sinza Station on the Nov. 22, 1938. and interpreted by _____

My name is Yang Yang alias Yang Ngoeh-hwa (real name). I am 19 years old, a native of Peiping and single. I reside at Room 7, 150 Bank of China Employees' Quarters, Jessfield Road, O.C.L. I am a student of the Jao Kwang Middle School, corner of Haiphong and Ferry Roads. I was engaged to marry Zung Kyung-san (陳金三) alias Sung Koo-jen (沈可人) (1st accused) in January, 1938. My father is an employee of the Registry of the General Affairs Department of the Bank of China, Hongkong.

During the summer vacation of 1937, I was a member of the Students' Circles National Salvation Association, Pootung Guild Building, 1545 Avenue Edward VII. I meanwhile joined the "Service Group to Villages" (農村服務團) formed by Mr. Pan Kung-chan (潘公展), Commissioner of the now defunct Bureau of Social Affairs, Shanghai City Government, and proceeded to Wusieh, where I, together with 90 others, carried out propaganda work among the farmers for the promotion of public health, opium suppression and national salvation.

About two months ago, my fiance and I promoted the 6th War Service Party of the Shanghai Students' Wandering Group (上海學生流亡團) with a communication address in the Dee Loong Refugee Camp (綠隆), North Shanse Road. The object of this group is to recruit local students and ex-students willing to proceed to the interior and to send them inland. I know that this group is supported by Mr. Wong Chao-dz (王造時).

a National Salvation leader, now at Nanchang. Altogether five batches of young people have left Shanghai in rotation. These people have dispersed inland to carry out national salvation work individually under the auspices of the "National Salvation Association". There is no headquarters or office in the interior. Up to now there are about 20 members. Almost all of them are young boys and girls under the age of 20. I do not know if they have obtained permission from their parents to join the group and to leave for the interior. The Group executives have not made any investigations in this connection. Among the members, there are only two females, myself and Chang Chi (張琦), a student of the Tseng Yui Middle School, Avenue Foch (Chengtu Road District). She is 18 years old. I know that the parents of Chang Chi did not give her permission to leave her family and the mother once called at the Dee Loong Refugee Camp with a view to locating her daughter, but without success. Through the influence of my fiance who was the Manager of the Dee Loong Refugee Camp, they entered the refugee camp as refugees and are still staying there pending transportation to the interior. On November 12, with the assistance of the Federation of Charity Organizations (Jen Chi Tang), we tried to send them to Wenchow, but failed.

With reference to the four girl students who are concerned in the present case, I have to state that I have had no previous connection with them; they were introduced to the Group by Li Chun ( ), another accused, who is one of the committee members of the Group. At 7 p.m., November 17, Li Chun, came to the Group's Communication address, Room 28, Yuan Tan Lodging House, Avenue Edward VII (French Concession), with a girl named Wong Beingooh. Li informed Zung Kyung-san and me that four girl students, whose identities were unknown to him, intended to join the Group and proceed to the interior to carry out national salvation and Red Cross work. Zung and I replied that we should have to consider matters before we allowed them to join. At noon, November 18, the girl named Wong and three others came to the room. As they were too young to proceed inland, we refused to allow them to leave Shanghai. At 3 p.m., November 18, Zung, Li and I went to make enquiries at Race Course Road, the home of one of the girls named Wong, with a view to ascertaining the attitude of the parents. As a result of enquiries, we learned that the parents knew nothing of her intended departure and strongly objected. We returned to the lodging house and advised the girls to return home. They, however, refused. We did not inform the parents that their daughter was with us in the lodging house nor did we endeavour to send the girls home. We advised them to return of their own accord, but they intimated that they would commit suicide if they were refused permission to join the group. Shortly afterwards I left with my fiancé for the Italo-Chinese Steamship Company, 93 Canton Road to request Mr. Yu Ya Ching, the Manager, to issue 15 free passage tickets to Wenchow. Mr. Yu's representative, one named Chen (陳), who received us, agreed to issue 10 free tickets. Thereupon, we proceeded to the Dee Loong Refugee Camp and reported the matter to the other members of the Group.

While in the Dee Loong Refugee Camp, my mother came to see me and asked me why I had not left for Wenchow by the s.s. "Liang Chow" (梁州) on November 12 as originally intended. I explained to her that orders had unexpectedly been received from the Wenchow Authorities to delay the voyage. Then with my mother and fiancé, I proceeded to Room 28, Yuan Tan Lodging House, where we saw one of the four girls named Kao. We again asked her to come home, but again without avail.

At 9.30 p.m., November 18, the Municipal Police came and arrested me, my fiancé and the girl named Kao. My mother was in Room 37 Kiaotung Lodging House, Avenue Edward VII (French Concession), and was later taken into custody. We opened the room in the Kiaotung Lodging House in order to show our decision to separate from the four girls who at that time intended to occupy the room in the Yuan Tan Lodging House.

REPORT OF POLICE INVESTIGATIONS.

The following is the statement of <sup>Woo</sup> Yang/Shing-ts (楊胡馨芝) native of Peiping taken by me D.S.I. Kao Yen-ken at Sinza Station on the Nov. 22, 1938, and interpreted by

My name is <sup>Woo</sup> Yang/Shing-ts. I am 40 years of age, a native of Peiping and married. I am residing in Room 5, 150 Bank of China Employees' Quarters, Jessfield Road, O.C.L. My husband is an employee of the Registry of the General Affairs Department of the Bank of China, Hongkong, being transferred there from Shanghai on August 1, 1938.

In 1918, I graduated from the Peiping Girls' Normal School, Peiping. In 1931, I served as a teacher in the Chung Tseng (中 振) Primary School in the Bank of China Employees' Quarters on Jessfield Road, O.C.L., which was established by the Bank of China for the children of its employees, and in 1937 (spring) I was employed by the S.M.C., Chinese Staff Employees' Association, Continental Emporium Building, Nanking Road, as a teacher in Mandarin. Meanwhile I held the position as a teacher in the Feng Ling Primary School (楓 林小學), Feng Ling Jao, off Route Ghisi. This school was established by the Chinese Red Cross Society for the children of its doctors and staff employees. I remained idle following the outbreak of hostilities in Shanghai on August 13th, 1937.

I am not connected with the Shanghai Students' Wandering Group. This group was formed by Zung Kyung-san (陳 金三), the fiancé of my daughter Yang Yang (楊 漾), alias Yang Ngoeh-hwa (楊 玉華) (1st and 2nd accused respectively). My daughter and her fiancé intended to proceed to the interior and conduct national salvation and Red Cross work. As my daughter is engaged to Zung Kyung-san, I have no objection to her going away with her fiancé.

I have also no connection with the matter of the four young girl students who intended to leave Shanghai with the group without the permission of their parents.

My presence in the Yuan Tan Lodging House and the Kiaotung Lodging House, Avenue Edward VII (French Concession) on November 18 was for the purpose of seeing my daughter who was scheduled to leave for Wenchow and I intended to pass the night (November 18) with her in the Kiaotung Lodging House for the purpose of having a private talk with my daughter leaving the next day. I was arrested by the Municipal Police in the Kiaotung Lodging House at about 10 p.m., November 18.

REPORT OF POLICE INVESTIGATIONS.

The following is the statement of Li Chun alias Zia Lee-kuo native of Canton taken by me D.S.I. Kao Yen-ken at Sinza Station on the Nov. 21, 1938. and interpreted by _____

My name is Li Chun (李 群), alias Zia Lee-kuo (real name). I am 15 years old, a native of Canton and single. I reside at 25 Yung An Fang, Rue de Laguerre, French Concession. I am a student of the Fuhtan Middle School, Avenue Haig.

Following the outbreak of hostilities, 1937, I became a member of the now defunct Choral Circles National Salvation Association, Ming Kwang Middle School on Kiaochow Road. During the summer vacation of 1938, I joined the Chinese Y.M.C.A., 123 Boulevard de Montigny, which assigned me to teach refugee children in a refugee camp on Rue Hue. In the school, I used to receive secret publications of a national salvation nature such as "Unity", "Students' Livelihood" and "Emancipation" from my school mates. I am quite willing to offer my services to the nation during the present crisis. On November 1, 1938, I was introduced by a schoolmate named Bao Shih-ling (鮑 錫麟), (now student in the 3rd Junior Class), to join the "Shanghai Students Wandering Group" (上海學生流亡團), Dee Loong Refugee Camp, North Shanse Road. The object of this group is to receive students who wish to conduct national salvation work in the interior. The leader is named Wong Ping (王 平), who has left for Wenchow, supposedly, on his way to Nanchang, but whose present whereabouts are not known. Zung Kyung-san (陳金三), Miss Yang Yang (楊 漾) and myself constitute the committee of the group in Shanghai. There is a membership of 25 persons including two females named Yang Yang and Chang Chi ( 張琦 ). All of them are students of various schools, some of whom know Zung personally while others joined the group on the introduction of members. This group is supported by Mr. Wong Chao-izu ( 王造時 ), a national salvation leader and a founder of the Cultural Circles National Salvation Association, now at Nanchang.

At about 5 p.m., November 12, I called at the Federation of Charity Organizations (Jen Chi Tang), 35 Yunnan Road, with a view to interviewing Mr. Loh Teh-sung ( 陸德坤 ) and Lang Foong ( 冷風 ), but was unable to see them as they were absent. The object of the interview was to seek the permission of the Federation to allow the members of the group to stay in the Dee Loong Refugee Camp for the time being. However, I met four girl students, hitherto unknown to me, who were then asking the Federation to issue free passage tickets to the interior, but without success. They are named 1. Wong Bei-ngoeh ( 王佩玉 ), 2. Chen Wei-lai ( 陳惠蘭 ), 3. Yu Sih-feng ( 余雪芳 ) and 4. Kao ( 高 ), all school students; I do not know the exact schools in which they are studying. They seemed absolutely in despair, whereupon I approached them and on ascertaining that their object of going to the interior was to conduct national salvation and red cross work, I suggested that they join the Shanghai Students' Wandering Group which has exactly the same object in view. They agreed, whereupon I promised to refer the matter to the chief of the group, Zung Kyung-san for approval. One of them named Chen Wei-lai ( 陈伟来 ), a student of the Shanghai Middle School, Chengtu Road, stated that if I wanted her, I might get into touch with her through a certain telephone, the number of which I have forgotten. Chen also asked me to give a reply to her at her home, 417 or 419 Race Course Road, a little after 5 p.m., November 16. At the appointed time I met her in front of her house. We did not talk for long owing to the objection raised by her father. We met again at the same venue at about 6 p.m., on November 17. On this occasion another of the girl students named Wong Bei-ngoeh ( 翁佩娥 ) was with Chen. Chen left soon after owing to another engagement. Wong and I went to see Zung Kyung-san, the leader of the group, at Room 28, Yuan Tan Lodging House, Avenue Edward VII ( French Concession ). Zung promised to allow two of them named Wong Bei-ngoeh and Yu Sih-feng to proceed to Nanchang with the group. As we expect to obtain some free tickets to Wenchow from Mr. Yu Ya Ching and leave on November 19, Zung and I ordered them to be present at the lodging house at 12 noon on November 18 if they wished to go. At 12 noon November 18, all four girls attended the lodging house. We asked whether they had obtained permission from their parents. They replied in the negative. We thereupon told them to return home unless permission from their parents had been obtained. They refused. (It will be noted later that Li Chun himself has left his parents without their permission and consent). Zung, Yang and I went to the home of Wong Bei-ngoeh, Wong Yung-chu Dentists' Shop, Race Course Road, with a view to ascertaining the attitude of her parents in the matter. We disguised ourselves as intending to collect some contributions for the Shanghai Students' Wandering Group. During our stay there we met her school teacher (Shanghai Middle School), who was reporting Wong Bei-ngoeh being missing.

Seeing the strong objection of the parents, we returned to the lodging house at about 3 p.m. We again advised the four girls to return home. They again refused and intimated that they would commit suicide should they be rejected. At 6 p.m., I returned to my lodging in the Dee Loong Refugee Camp, North Shanse Road, leaving the four girls at the lodging house to decide the matter themselves. I do not know how things transpired later. At about 1 p.m., November 19, I was arrested by the Municipal Police at the said refugee camp.

My father is the manager of the Zia Pih Kee Export Merchants, 25 Yung An Fang, Rue de Laguerre. My connection with the said Group is not known to my parents. They opposed my departure for the interior to take part in national salvation work. On October 30 or 31, I wrote

T. Robertson Esq.
Deputy Commissioner of Police.

Sir,

According to report my brother Yao Zung (姚拯) is now being detained in the Sinza Police Station. Being his elder brother and guardian, I make bold to ask your kindness to permit him to be released on bail.

Because he disappeared, our grand-mother worried so much that she fell very sick, and has been anxious to see the grandson. His release will mostly probably make the old lady better and recover sooner.

I have been a member of the Special Police for seven years and I have a very good record. My brother's detention is a stain on my reputation. Hoping that my humble request will receive your favourable consideration.

Your faithfully.

Writ of Detention, Suspected Abduction.

At 9.40p.m. on 18-11-38, one named Tang Tang Ling (陳長林), Contractor, 419 Racecourse Road, came to this Station and reported that his daughter, Tang Wei Lai (陳惠來), aged 14, was missing from above address since 8a.m. on 18-11-38, and that two girls who could give information as to her whereabouts were in the Shanghai Middle School, 466 Chengtu Road.

C.D.C. 193, C.D.C. 303, and the undersigned proceeded to the above school, where two girls named Wong Pei Nyoh (王佩玉), 16, 227 Racecourse Road, and Nyue Mai Ling (李美齡), 15, 23 Tuh Nyi Sing Tsung (德年街) off Range Road, were located.

When questioned, the 1st named stated that the girl Tang Wei Lai could be found in a lodging house in the French Concession. Assistance was obtained from the French Police, and in Room No. 28 of a lodging house at 891 Avenue Edward VII, F/Concession, Tang Wei Lai and another school girl named Tang Kwei Ying (蔣桂英), 16, 7 Kyung Yue Li, Avenue Edward VII, were located. One male and one female described below found in the room were arrested on suspicion of abducting the girls:-

- (1) Tang Kyung San (陳錦三), 26, Shanghai, unemployed, and
- (2) Tang Tung (唐冬), 19, Peking, female, both residing 180 Tseung Ang Feh S (中街) off Jessfield Road.

In Room No. 37 of a lodging house at 874 Avenue Edward VII, R/Concession, a female Chinese, mother of the 2nd accused, was arrested on suspicion of being concerned in this case:-

- (3) Yang Woo Sz (~~楊伍士~~), 40, Peking,
M/Female, No. 37, Tsong Ang Pih S off
Jessfield Road.

The 1st. 2nd & 3rd. accused were handed over by the French Police, and at 1.30a.m. on 19-11-38, through information obtained from the 1st accused, another male Chinese was arrested in a refugee camp at No. 3, Lane 568, North Shanse Road:-

- (4) Lee Kyuin (~~李君~~), 15, Canton,

From enquiries made, it was learned that the four girls, (1) Tang Wei Lai, (2) Wong Pei Nyeh, (3) Nyue Mai Ling & (4) Tang Kwei Ying, were all student friends attending the Shanghai Middle School, 466 Chengtu Road, and about one week ago they planned to run away from home and proceed to Wenchow to take part in Red Cross work. About 2p.m. on 15-11-38 they went to the Tang Kyi Daung (~~江錦堂~~) Welfare Association, Yunnan Road, and requested free passages to Wenchow, but this was refused, and they were advised to return to their homes. On leaving the above institution, they stood discussing the matter, when the 4th accused approached them and informed them that he knew someone who could get them free.

passages to Hanchow. On 17-11-38 the 4th accused met Tung Pei Lai and Wong Pei Nyoh on Racecourse Road, and led them to Room No. 28 of the lodging house at 891 Avenue Edward VII, where he introduced them to the 1st accused as the person who would arrange their passages to the south.

About 1p.m. on 18-11-38 all four girls proceeded by themselves to Room No. 28 of above lodging house and were met there by the 1st and 2nd accused, who were later joined by the 3rd and 4th accused. The 1st accused informed the girls that the sum of about $100.00 would be necessary for travelling expenses, and the two girls, Wong Pei Nyoh and Hyue Hai Ling, proceeded to the Shanghai Middle School, Chengtu Road, for the purpose of trying to raise some money and to collect their belongings. They were detained at the school by the staff and their parents notified, with the result that this Station was informed as reported above.

The 1st, and 4th, accused both state that they merely attempted to help the girls to get to South China, where they wished to take up Red Cross Work, while the 2nd & 3rd accused deny being concerned in any way. It is suspected, however, that the four accused intended to abduct the girls for the purpose of gain, and they will be taken before the S.S.D. Court on 19-11-38, when a Writ of Detention will be applied for 25 Tsang Yue Li, Taku Road.

From interrogation of these youths it was ascertained that another named Tsang Shih Zung (張逸成) residing at 6 Edward Li, Rue Touraine, F.T. had become dis-satisfied and had returned home.

It appears that these youths had been approached by one named Siau Ah Foh (小阿福) who persuaded them to leave home and proceed with him to Chingkiang to join the new 4th Route Army. The youths met on 16.4.1940 and later proceeded to the Woo Nyung lodging house, 239 Cunningham Road where they engaged rooms Nos. 33 & 40. On 17.4.1940 Siau Ah Foh visited them and at 2.p.m. took Sung Yoong Liang to obtain the necessary passes and to change the local currency into Japanese currency. Sung Yoong Liang returned at about 5.p.m. and stated that Siau Ah Foh would returned at about 10.p.m. Up to the time of detectives' visit Ah Foh had not returned but according to Sung Yoong Liang the man will return on the morning of the 18.4.1940. Ta Mei Pao :-

MISSING STUDENTS OF LOCAL MIDDLE SCHOOLS BECOME CAPTIVES OF JAPANESE IN NANKING AND SOOCHOW

Of late the French Municipal Police have been repeatedly receiving reports from the residents of the French Concession informing them that more than ten students of the various middle schools in the French Concession have gone missing. The close search made by the French Police of the various hotels and apartments in the Concession in the past ten days in the hope of obtaining clues of the missing students has proved a failure.

Yesterday about 6 of the missing students suddenly returned to their homes. They were immediately called upon by the French Police for inquiries, as a result of which it was found that they were patriotic youths who desired to proceed to the fallen areas south of the Yangtze to join the Chinese New 4th Route Army and the rear of the Chinese National Army at Chinghua, Ningpo, or to enlist in the Military College of the National Government in Chungking. However, they failed to complete their trip because of lack of passage money. Also a shameless traitor who pretended to be a member of the New 4th Route National Army and of the National Government in Chungking, played a trick on the students by telling them that he would be responsible for sending them to their destinations. All these young students, not having had much experience, fell into the trap. They were sent by ship to Nanking and other fallen areas and also some of them were taken to Soochow overland. It is learned that upon their arrival at the various places, they were forced to become soldiers.

The 6 students who safely returned to Shanghai yesterday were lucky enough to make their escape from the hands of their abductor.

As a matter of public safety and good order in the French Concession, the French Police is paying strict attention to this serious affair. It has issued an order to arrest all kidnappers of students in order to bring them to book for their crimes.
